On fixing the responsibility for the week of drink, he declared it was time for the sober people of our land to "get out from behind the victim and dupe" and assume their legitimate share of responsibility. The dealer prosecutes an honorable business, as far as the law can make it so, and the dealer is the agent of the people, from whom all laws emanate. The poor, abandoned drunkard went to his ruin in an atmosphere of moral mlasma that he encountered in the social and civil relation of life-even rising from the flowing bowl of friendship's seal. By our laws now and their judicial interpretation any place is a "suitable place" for a dram-shop. Mr. Bundick foreibly impressed the responsibility of the liquor traffic on the sober citizen who permitted it by law. The Coopers Organize.

A meeting of the white coopers of Richmond and Manchester was held Thursday night, with the result that they organized themselves into a local trades union with a membership of twenty-two. A full corps of officers were elected and much other business transacted. Application will be made for a charter from the International Coopers' Union, and the new union will be organized by the Trades Council. Several members of other labor organizations will become auxiliary members of the Coopers' Union, and thus every encouragement will be afforded the new body, which will begin its work under most favorable circumstances.

William H. Richards, the Englishman who was charged, as reported in yester day's Dispatch, with attempting a criminal assault upon his 18-year-old daughter, was before Magistrate Larus yesterday, and was sent on to the grand jury. The girl was put on the stand, and testified that on two occasions her father had attempted to assault her. Richards also took the stand, and admitted endeavoring to intimidate the girl twice, but said he did so only to test her. He was committed to jail to await the action of the jury, and ball was allowed in the sum of $300. He was unable to give it at last accounts. Mr. William H. Beveridge is his counsel.

Suit for Damages to a Bicyclist.

The Henrico Circuit Court was engaged yesterday in the trial of a suit of Hodges vs. Axsell, for $2,500 damages. In July last the plaintiff, who is a colored man, was riding a bicycle in the western suburbs, when a dog belonging to the defendant jumped upon him, knocking him from the wheel, and causing him to break his arm. AND SECOND ANNIVERSARY.

An Enjoyable Outing at Blandon Park, Followed by a Street Parade-Reviewed by the Governor

The f024 anniversary of the Richmond Light Infantry Blues is now a thing of the past, though its memory will remain fresh in the minds of those who participated in the pleasures of the occasion until the next annual social gathering comes around

REVIEWED BY THE GOVERNOR.

The Blues left their armory at 10 o'clock in the morning and went directly to the Governor's Mansion, where they were viewed by his Excellency from the portico of the Mansion. They then marched out Grace street, headed by their band, and, by the nearest route, went to Beech and Main streets, where they took street-cars for the reservoir. The soldier lads arrived at the pleasure grounds about 11 o'clock. Here they quickly discarded their full-dress uniform for the cooler and more comfortable fatigue dress. fatigue dress.

LUNCH WAS SERVED.

Their guests soon began to assemble, and after a goodly number had reached the park lunch was announced. This consisted of cold meats and salax, and, after full justice had been done the viands, the company lispersed and formed small groups around about the grounds. Beneath the shade of the trees tables were arranged, and, cards being produced, many of the older guests and members of the association induiged in social games. The younger ones found abundant amusement also. The switchback, which has been improved and put in perfect order, was liberally patronized, and all day the little coach was kept going up and down the incline laden with happy parties.

Base-ball and quoits were also played, and altogether the occasion was made a most enjoyable and memorable one.

A FINE DINNER.

A FINE DINNER.

At 4 o'clock a magnificent dinner was erved in the pavilion, and about two undred and fifty gentlemen sat down members of the two companies, headed by a bass-drum and cymbals, made a forced march and surrounded Governor O'Ferrall, who had arrived a short time before, and cailed upon him for a speech. The Governor was equal to the occasion, and he responded in a few happy words.

CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET.

CHICAGO, May 16.—The government report was the subject of much controversy on the Board of Trade to-day. Some one in New York sent a dispatch to Chicago that, owing to some confusion in the returns, the Agricultural Department would be unable to publish the condition of wheat this month. This new obtained wide circulation, and was the means of causing a decline. A telegran inquiring as to the truth of the report was sent to Washington, and a reply wareceived stating that the report would be issued. Values railled on the denial but afterwards declined on local realizing that the condition of the conditio CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET.

Corn—Commission-houses and local operators sold corn very freely to-day. Some of the traders were more egrossed in depreciating values than in disposing of the property. Advices from the country were to the effect that some enlargement of the interior movement might be looked for. July corn opened at 50 7-8c., sold between 51 and 50 3-8 and 50 1-2c., and closed at 50 5-8c.—1-2785c. under yesterday. Cash corn was 1-420-1-2c. lower.

The same people who were selling corn were pursuing a similar course in oats. The raiding tactles cost the price something, the decline being accomplished without much resistance, owing to the weakness of the other cereals. The recipits were 276 cars, and 250 cars are estimated for to-morrow. The withdrawals were 285.257 bushels. July oats closed 1-423-8c. lower. Cash oats were 1-4c. lower than yesterday.

Provisions—The Anglo-American Packing Company were the best buyers of provisions to-day, whilst the Cudahy Company sold. The offerings were larger than the demand could very well absorb, and prices dropped a moderate degree. The transactions did not assume important proportions at any time, and a slow market was the consequence.

Hogs at the stock-yards were steady to firm, which fact communicated some little strength to product at the opening, but this soon disappeared, an easier tone succeeding. The close was 10c. lower than yesterday for July pork, unchanged for July Infa, and 2 1-25c. lower for July Firs.

Irvine's Case Postponed.

LENINGTON, May 19—(Special.)—The case of C, W. Irvine, charged with receiving money embezzled from the defendant, made a motion that the case be postponed until the August term, in order to allow him and his colleague, Mr. Glasgow, to consult regarding the new indictments brought in by yester-day's grand jury. Mr. Tucker also asked that a venire be summoned from some other county, on account of the strong feeling in this county in regard to the collapsed bank's matters. The Commonwealth's representatives agreed to the above motions, but Judge Grattan wanted the case called this week, or in June. Captain Bumgardner and Mr. Tucker and Mr. Glasgow said they could not be present before the July court, at which the case will again be brought up. A nolle prosequil was entered by Captain Bumgardner in the case of the indictment which was objected to yesterday.
